Upon payment, script packages will be sent electronically. These packages can be reproduced by your company for the use of the above-stated performances. In the event that your company wishes to perform the script at a later date (and your company still has the script, etc.), the Creative Arts Co-op does not require another script package purchase – only the royalty fees for any subsequent performances.

*The Creative Arts Co-op reserves the right to refuse a script order request based upon proximity to Harriman, TN (as stated on the web site) and/or (but not limited to) a conflicting performance of the same script within your vicinity. In either case, a representative will contact you directly to discuss and remedy the issue.

Script Package costs and royalty fees subject to change.
